Pledges - Frequently Asked Questions

What is the difference between a donation and a pledge? A donation is a onetime contribution of funds. A pledge is a promise to donate a certain amount of money over a period of time.

What is a contingency pledge? Your pledge amount is due at such time that a certain benchmark (e.g. a level of financial commitments) is reached. As stated on the pledge form. You will be issued tax receipts for each pledged amount received by Center for the Arts Evergreen in the tax year it is received.

Why should I give a pledge? A pledge is a forward-thinking gift that helps us to plan for the future. Raising funds for the capital campaign will take 2 years, and if we know what our income will be ahead of time, we can create a budget and use your donation strategically.

What if I cannot afford a large amount? Every gift counts regardless of the donation size. We welcome your contribution within your personal budget.

Can I donate securities? Yes, Contact Huiting Wealth Management Group of Wells Fargo Advisors, Randy Huiting. Please indicate your donation is to be directed to the Capital Campaign for Center for the Arts.

How will my gift be recognized? We intend to recognize donors in various campaign materials. Also, there are naming opportunities such as rooms for the new space.

Is my pledge or donation tax deductible? Yes. Evergreen Center for the Arts is a 501C3 charitable organization and we provide tax receipts.

Does my pledge contribute to the ongoing costs of the Center?

Pledges are aimed at raising funds specifically for our relocation and related expenses. Once the project is completed funds may be allocated to on going operating expenses.
